He expressed surprise and disgust at the turn things have taken in New Hanover, where, after George H. Bellamy, of Brunswick, was nominated in the New Hanover primaries to represent the two countles in the State Senate, the New Hanover delegates in the convention, when it came to declaring the nomination of Mr. Bellamy, refused to go into the nomination, and withdrew from the convention. He initials that the opponents of Mr. Bellamy should have made their fight in the primary, and not presented the spectacle of flying right into the tecth of the wishes of the party, as expressed in he primary, as they did by their action in the convention.

Neatness

Is the great cry of the age. Except in the case of large, high-priced bedroom suites, everything that's useful in furniture is neat and very plain. We have an enormous stock of neat Brass and Iron Beds, neat Dressers, Chiffonieres and Toilet Tables, in mahogany, oak and birdseye maple to match, which, when you consider the extraordinary fine finish and fine woods used in their construction, are wonderfully low in price. Don't make the girl spend the first few years of married life in the drudgery of keeping a big, clumsy chamber suite clean, but get a bridal suite, consisting of a neat brass bed with a neat bureau or chiffoniere and ladies' dresser to match, and you'll always have a sweet-tempered wife. And say! It will more than likely cost

We are now prepared to lay all carpets, mattings, etc., promptly, as we've just added to our force.
